

Writing for different audiences

Grade 4 Writing Worksheet

Practice by writing about the topic below for two different audiences.

When you write something, it's important to ask yourself: Who will read this? This is your audience! Your writing's tone, the information you include, and the words or phrases you use should be based on your audience.

Topic: Healthy eating is important for everyone! The Department of Health would like to write a paragraph encouraging these two audiences to eat more nutritiously.

Audience #1: Adults who work a lot

Audience #2: People who play sports
