

Measure lengths in non-standard units and cm

Grade 2 Measurement Worksheet

Use an AA battery  and a centimeter ruler to measure the lengths of real school objects.

| Object                                                                                          | Measurement(round to the nearestbattery or centimeter) |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------|
| Lamp       | _____batteries_____centimeters                             |
| Placemat | _____batteries_____centimeters                             |
| Mirror   | _____batteries_____centimeters                             |
| Hanger   | _____batteries_____centimeters                             |

| Object                                                                                            | Measurement(round to the nearestbattery or centimeter) |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------|
| Pillow      | _____batteries_____centimeters                             |
| Flashlight | _____batteries_____centimeters                             |
| Key       | _____batteries_____centimeters                             |
| Spoon     | _____batteries_____centimeters                             |

Which item was the longest?

Answer: _____