

Quotation marks

Grade 4 Punctuation Worksheet

Add quotation marks and commas to the sentences as needed.

Quotation marks go around spoken words and their punctuation.

1. How was your day at school? asked my grandma.

2. Mr. Roberts said It is going to snow on Sunday. Let's go sledding!

3. If you have a second said my friend, George I could use some help with this math problem.

4. My dog, Rover, is the best dog in the world said Sophia.

5. I forgot to bring my lunch, and I forgot to eat breakfast! Grant cried.

6. Eating cake said my little sister is my favorite part of any party.

7. Melissa said Can we turn up the music? I feel like dancing today.

8. I don't like fruits at all. I love all vegetables explained my cousin.

Answers

1. How was your day at school? asked my grandma.
"How was your day at school?" asked my grandma.
2. Mr. Roberts said It is going to snow on Sunday. Let's go sledding!
Mr. Roberts said, "It is going to snow on Sunday. Let's go sledding!"
3. If you have a second said my friend, George I could use some help with this math problem.
"If you have a second," said my friend, George, "I could use some help with this math problem."
4. My dog, Rover, is the best dog in the world said Sophia.
"My dog, Rover, is the best dog in the world," said Sophia.
5. I forgot to bring my lunch, and I forgot to eat breakfast! Grant cried.
"I forgot to bring my lunch, and I forgot to eat breakfast!" Grant cried.
6. Eating cake said my little sister is my favorite part of any party.
"Eating cake," said my little sister, "is my favorite part of any party."
7. Melissa said Can we turn up the music? I feel like dancing today.
Melissa said, "Can we turn up the music? I feel like dancing today."
8. I don't like fruits at all. I love all vegetables explained my cousin.
"I don't like fruits at all. I love all vegetables," explained my cousin.