

Capitalization

Grade 3 Capitalization Worksheet

Correct the capitalization:

Use capital letters

- to begin a sentence
- for proper nouns
- in titles
- in addresses
- for days and months

jake's family moved to a new neighborhood. they bought a house in henderson place on lincoln avenue. as soon as he moved in, jake hopped on his bicycle to discover the neighborhood. he rode down lincoln avenue and turned on clinton crescent. this led to memorial park where there was a play structure and other children were playing. jake got off his bicycle and went to introduce himself to a couple of boys. he quickly made new friends; mark and frank who lived over on reagan street. it seems that jake's life in a new town is off to a good start.

Answers

Jake's family moved to a new neighborhood. They bought a house in Henderson Place on Lincoln Avenue. As soon as he moved in, Jake hopped on his bicycle to discover the neighborhood. He rode down Lincoln Avenue and turned on Clinton Crescent. This led to Memorial Park where there was a play structure and other children were playing. Jake got off his bicycle and went to introduce himself to a couple of boys. He quickly made new friends; Mark and Frank who lived over on Reagan Street. It seems that Jake's life in a new town is off to a good start.