

Commonly confused verbs: lie, lay or laid

Grade 2 Verbs Worksheet

Write lie, lay or laid.

My parents lie down for a nap.
Yesterday, my parents lay down for a nap.

Janet lays her book down.
Yesterday, Janet laid her book down.

1. You look tired, _____ down.
2. _____ the blanket on the bed.
3. Yesterday, Mark _____ the pillows on the couch.
4. Last night, I _____ down on my bed.
5. They _____ their papers on the table.
6. You and your sister _____ in the sun when it is warm.
7. The wolf _____ down his prey and listened for a noise.
8. Last month, you _____ in the sand.
9. After he arrived, he _____ his coat on the bench.
10. We love to _____ in the grass.

Answers

1. You look tired, lie down.
2. Lay the blanket on the bed.
3. Yesterday, Mark laid the pillows on the couch.
4. Last night, I lay down on my bed.
5. They lay their papers on the table.
6. You and your sister lie in the sun when it is warm.
7. The wolf laid down his prey and listened for a noise.
8. Last month, you lay in the sand.
9. After he arrived, he laid his coat on the bench.
10. We love to lie in the grass.