

Writing for different audiences

Grade 4 Writing Worksheet

Practice by writing about the topic below for two different audiences.

When you write something, it's important to ask yourself: Who will read this? This is your audience! Your writing's tone, the information you include, and the words or phrases you use should be based on your audience.

Topic: There are currently lots of puppies up for adoption! The local rescue association would like to encourage people to consider adopting a dog.

Audience #1: Kids

Audience #2: Elderly people
