

Compound to simple sentences

Grade 3 Sentences Worksheet

Split the compound sentences into two simple sentences.

Claudia was full from supper, yet she asked for dessert.

Claudia was full from supper. She asked for dessert.

1. The jar was empty, so she washed it.

2. The boy was hungry, for he ate all his food.

3. They paid for their tickets, and they got to see the movie.

4. They do not like to swim, but they enjoy fishing.

5. The show was great, but the crowd did not clap.

6. Do you want green peppers, or do you prefer broccoli?

7. It was late in the season, yet they did not give up.

8. It was still early, so he made himself another coffee.

9. She did not want to cry, for everyone was looking at her.

10. The hostess walked us to our table, and she gave us some menus.

11. They did not have soup, but they did have salad.

12. He wanted some bread, but the box was empty.

Answers

1. The jar was empty, so she washed it.
The jar was empty. She washed it.
2. The boy was hungry, for he ate all his food.
The boy was hungry. He ate all his food.
3. They paid for their tickets, and they got to see the movie.
They paid for their tickets. They got to see the movie.
4. They do not like to swim, but they enjoy fishing.
They do not like to swim. They enjoy fishing.
5. The show was great, but the crowd did not clap.
The show was great. The crowd did not clap.
6. Do you want green peppers, or do you prefer broccoli?
Do you want green peppers? Do you prefer broccoli?
7. It was late in the season, yet they did not give up.
It was late in the season. They did not give up.
8. It was still early, so he made himself another coffee.
It was still early. He made himself another coffee.
9. She did not want to cry, for everyone was looking at her.
She did not want to cry. Everyone was looking at her.
10. The hostess walked us to our table, and she gave us some menus.
The hostess walked us to our table. She gave us some menus.
11. They did not have soup, but they did have salad.
They did not have the soup. They did have salad.
12. He wanted some bread, but the box was empty.
He wanted some bread. The box was empty.